THE BRAVE NEBRASKANS

AND TWENTIETH KANSAS BEAR
BRUNT OF FIGHTING.

Graphic Letter from Major C. E. Stanton Describing the Hardships and Gallantry of the Volunteers.

Major W. A. Purdy received the following letter from Major-Paymaster C. E. Stanton in the Philippines, which gives a strikingly graphic picture of the horrors of the war:

MANILA, P. I., April 26, 1899.
Major W. A. Purdy, Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands.

The Nebraska regiment have never been in the city since the fighting began on February 4, and their regiment is now down to less than 400 active men from death wounds, fever and sun. They had lost 165 killed and wounded up to Saturday last. On that day 7 were killed and 12 wounded. Sunday 5 were killed and 13 wounded including Colonel Stotsenburg, and yesterday two more were killed.

The palm for all this fighting lies with the Twentieth Kansas and Nebraska for they have one wonder, being at the front continually. So many deeds of valor have been performed that they all will never be recorded, and the history of the Eighth Army Corps will be replete with valor, courage and patriotism.

The papers keep you well informed of our doings, but no one can impress upon you the hardships our men have to undergo. Our boys waste swamps and rice fields, and stream up to their waists, carrying guns and ammunition belts over their heads and sleep at night with no covering but the stars, their clothes saturated with water and plastered with mud; fighting until pitch dark; resting on their arms, breakfasting as best they can before daylight, without fire; then on again under a tropical sun intense in its fierceness; taking trench after trench of the enemy which were marvels of engineering skill and which a regiment of our soldiers could not have taken without the aid of our big guns. All this, and more, every man from the brigadier commander to the private imbued with the one idea that American power was supreme, and that it must be maintained.

When I saw Colonel Egbert killed and brought his body home to his wife and three young lady daughters here, when Krayerbuhl's remains were sent home on the Sherman to a wife and two babies there, when Stotsenburg was brought in Sunday to his wife and two sweet little girls here, and I think of her voyage home with him now, I can only bow my head and realize that the full-war is hell!

Even the pay corps will get into the scrap officially, as we will have to pay the troops on the line. This means going up and down a line forty miles long, where firing from the enemy is constant some part of the day and I may run my nose straight up against it. I only hope I may escape the bullets, but better men than I have stopped them, and it may be my turn.

CLOUDS OF DUST.

Wind and Red Soil Make Things Disagreeable.

SPRECKELSVILLE, (Maul), June 15.—Kihel plantation and Spreckelsville's lower lands have been furnishing regular old time dust-clouds this week. Strong trade winds start the red soil up, then it is caught by back currents of air and slowly spreads up the mountain side, until old Haleakala is entirely hid from view; the whole Kula side being completely covered and everything gritty with dust. On Tuesday last this reached even as far over as Oahu. It must be seen, or felt, to be appreciated.

It has been remarked here that Kihel real estate rises higher than the stock ever dared to go, but there is no question about the quality of the same.

RACING PROGRAM.

The committees of the Jockey Club have been hard at work for two days on the racing program for July 4th. Most of the best events of the last meets at the park will be incorporated in the schedule. It is expected that the program will be ready for publication during next week.

MOKULELE'S CREW SAFE

WERE CAPSIZED NEAR KALALAU
BUT ESCAPED.

Suffered Perils and Endured Severe Hardships but Finally Arrived at Waimea and Took Steamer Thence.

Through perils that would try the stoutest hearts, and by escapes that seem little less than miraculous, Captain Joe Irving and the members of the crew of the Mokulele that were with him, landed safely at Kalalau the day after setting sail from Hanaele in the skiff on the voyage on which they were supposed to be lost. Irving and two of the others arrived in Honolulu this morning by the Waiialeale. Irving is suffering considerably physically from the hardships he endured.

He says that after leaving Hanaele, they buffeted heavily seas all night that kept them wet through and hard at work managing the light vessel they were in. The next morning they found themselves near Kalalau and thought the worst of their troubles were over. They were tired out and hungry and were just opening a tin of canned food to eat for breakfast, when a strong wind came down on them off shore, from a gulch they were passing and capsized their boat. All their food and everything else went to the bottom. A valise in which Irving had the papers relating to the Mokulele's cargo and the money he had received as master, for freight and other business connected with the vessel, went to the bottom. The men of course were all in the water, but managed to keep themselves afloat and to get to the overturned boat. After three hours in the water, they managed to right the craft and with the assistance of some natives who came out to them, got to Kalalau. They remained there several days refitting their boat and then sailed to Waimea. From there Irving and the mate took the Ke Au Hou to Hanalei, and finding the Waiialeale there ready to sail for Honolulu, took passage on her and arrived, as stated, this morning.

The isolated position of Kalalau, without telephonic communication with other points on the island is probably the reason why their safe arrival at that place was not known before.

"THE FIGHTING 13th."

How Honolulu Appeared to One of Its Men.

The Star has received copies of a number of patriotic comic and sentimental songs from the author Rena N. Sangster of Buffalo. One of the most striking is entitled "The Fighting 13th," and is dedicated to the heroes of San Juan. The titles of some of the others are "The Reunion," "A Grand Army Song," "Uncle Sam Forever," "Our Brave Boys in Blue," "The Old Homestead" and "Those Who Laugh Loudest are Those Who Laugh Last."

Miss Sangster was prompted to send these songs by the account of the enthusiastic reception of the 13th at Honolulu given in the Star copies of which were sent her by Quarter Master's Sergeant Fred Binckel together with a letter afterwards published in the Buffalo Review in which he says:

"Honolulu, has never been appreciated by the people of the United States. It is the most beautiful spot I have ever seen. Every residence is a work of art, and the surroundings of a little cottage is a miniature park in itself. The trees and flowers which adorn the lawns of every home, are universally admired in our home 'conservatories.' Here they grow in their natural size and beauty never even to be suspected of at home. Some of the homes are a perfect dream, and never could I have imagined such beauty outside of Paradise."

"The city is up-to-date in every particular. Some of the stores in the business part of the city would put to shame many of the splendid ones on Main Street, of which the Buffalonians are so proud. If I had my choice of places to serve in, the rest of my life, (excepting) Buffalo, this would be the place. The fame of our Regiment got here ahead of us, and you could see articles about the fighting 13th in big head lines in several local papers, the day after our arrival here."

A PLEASANT EVENING.

At the Orpheum tonight Post will introduce the laughable comedy What Happened to Mrs. Jones. It will make you laugh in spite of yourself. The other members of the company all have something new to offer and a pleasant evening is assured for all who attend. Remember this is Saturday night and if you go without having seats secured in advance, you may be confronted with the sign "standing room only."

MAKES ONE'S MOUTH WATER.

The popularity of "Apollinaris" seems to have no limits. One reads that it is obtainable in practically all parts of the world, and in New York, as in England, no social function is without "The Queen of Table Waters." The menus of the Assembly ball given at the Waldorf-Astoria, Metropolitan Club dance given at Sherry's, as well as those of the Vanderbilt and the Astor balls, all of which took place recently, bear witness to the pre-eminence of Apollinaris.

NIPPON MARU STILL HELD IN QUARANTINE.

A Death Two Days Ago Causes Inquiry—Board of Health Has Given no Final Judgment.

The Nippon Maru arrived early this morning after what must be very nearly a record trip from Yokohama. She left Hongkong May 21, Shanghai May 24, Nagasaki June 3, after seven days in quarantine. Kobe June 6 and Yokohama June 8. She left Yokohama only day after the Rio and the Rio has not yet been sighted. This makes the Nippon's time about 85 days.

She was held in quarantine at Nagasaki because of sickness breaking out among the Chinese passengers which the Nagasaki authorities diagnosed as the bubonic plague which is raging in Hongkong.

Three days ago there was another sudden death among the Chinese which the ship's surgeon is said ascribed to uremia. The local health authorities, however, have been engaged all morning making an investigation. The vessel has been held outside and only the least possible amount of communication between her and the shore was allowed. As the Rio sailed one day ahead of her, the Nippon only brings one day's mail. This was brought ashore. Dr. Day went out to the vessel early this morning, and returning went out again later, accompanied by another physician. Another investigation was made and then the two physicians reported to the president of the Board of Health. At the time of going to press it had not been decided what should be done with her. The passengers for Honolulu of whom there are several, have not yet been allowed to land. The ship's papers for the Custom House have not been brought ashore, and Customs officials have not gone aboard of her.

A special meeting of the Board of Health will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at which Dr. Day will make his report and recommend that the vessel be put in quarantine. He considers the circumstances of the death of the Chinese three days ago, taken into consideration with the views and action of the Japanese authorities sufficiently suspicious to warrant this.

COMING RECEPTION.

Colonel and Mrs. George W. Macfarlane will give a reception next Tuesday evening, from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock, at the hotel seaside annex, to meet Mr. and Mrs. Henry Macfarlane on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Invitations were issued this morning.

MORE OF THEM USED.

There are probably more Singer sewing machines used in the United States than of any other one make. This is a very excellent guarantee that they are one of the very best machines. The points of merit are strength, durability, easy running and simple construction. Very little mechanism to get out of order makes repair bills small. When in need of a new sewing machine examine the Singer before purchasing any other make. B. Bergeron, agent, Bethel street.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S SAY

ANSWERS CHARGES OF LAWYER HUMPHREYS.

Accepted One Attorney for Prosecution and Suggested One for Defense, but Assumed no Responsibility.

Attorney-General Cooper has filed an answer to the charge of malpractice and unprofessional conduct preferred against him by A. S. Humphreys. Each of the allegations in complainant's bill is specifically admitted, denied, answered or qualified. At the close of the answer Mr. Cooper makes this statement:

"That the requesting by him (the Attorney-General) of the said Carreira to appear for the said Carreira was made under the following circumstances:

"It was represented to the respondent by the Finance Department that the issues involved in the charge against the said Carreira were of much importance to the Finance Department and effected the efficiency of the department in securing to the Government the revenue due from Asiatics for personal taxes, and that legal assistance was required for the defense of said Carreira, and the respondent was requested to furnish such assistance.

"Finally, after the said A. S. Humphreys had been engaged on behalf of the complaining witness, as special counsel for the prosecution, the respondent asked the said Weber if he would be willing to attend to the case; that if he had no objection the respondent would like to have him appear for the Finance Department in the matter. The said Weber, a licensed practitioner, was at the time engaged as stenographer and clerk in the Attorney-General's office, but was not a deputy of the Attorney-General nor a public prosecutor. The said Weber expressed his willingness to so appear, and the matter was left entirely in his hands.

"That at no time did the respondent assume any personal direction or control of the defense of said case, but the matter was attended to by said Weber in the interest and on behalf of the Finance Department; and at no time and in no manner did the respondent interfere with or direct the prosecution of said case against said Carreira, but the same was carried on by the said Humphreys as he saw fit.

"That in the action taken by him in the said prosecution of Carreira he acted in the utmost good faith and pursued a course which was proper and consistent with his duties as Attorney-General as aforesaid and as an attorney of this court.

"That the information laid herein by the said A. S. Humphreys is not justified by the facts and is malicious and scandalous, and the rule should be discharged."

THE RETRIEVER.

Long Looked for Schooner Arrives from Hongkong.

The schooner Retriever arrived here last night 106 days from Hongkong, after a voyage that was full of incident. She sailed from Hongkong March 24, but by adverse winds and a typhoon was driven to the northern extremity of the Island of Luzon, having lost her mainmast. It was the intention to refit here but the threatening appearance of a Filipino fort, the attitude of the natives who started out toward the schooner as though to make prize of her and a favoring breeze springing up at the moment, changed the plan. The schooner then tossed about in the China sea landing was made on the Island of Formosa where repairs were made. Here J. W. Brown, the owner, left her and came by steamship to Honolulu.

The Retriever was built in Yokohama in 1886, and is of 96.65 tons. She was used as a sealer for several years and was finally bought by Brown three years ago in Borneo and until the present trip was engaged in the coasting trade of China.

Additional interest centers in the arrival of the Retriever from the fact that D. R. Vida who left here on a sailing vessel for Hongkong for a trip for his health, arrived on her as one of her seamen.

WILHELM'S ADMONITION.

GERLIN, June 3.—A guest at the Kiel festivals tells the correspondent here of the Associated Press that one of the incidents was the visit of the emperor to the new gun boat Jaguar, which is leaving tomorrow for the purpose of joining the German fleet in Chinese waters. Assembling the crew his majesty addressed them saying he hoped they would try to rival the glorious crew of the Itize in fidelity to country and emperor, adding, "And don't let the Chinese out there spit in your faces." The crew responded with tremendous cheering.

THE CHILDREN ENTERTAIN

EVENING OF FANCY DANCING AT OPERA HOUSE.

Successful Program by Mrs. Gunn's
Classes—Entertainment Enjoyed by a Crowded House.

A delightful dance was given by Mrs. Gunn and pupils in Progress hall from 10 to 12 o'clock last night. Quintette club music was used. The attendance was very large and the evening went off most pleasantly.

This affair followed the dancing exhibition in the opera house. The latter program was announced to begin at 7:30 o'clock, but on account of the surging crowd getting in late it was 8 before a beginning was made.

Music was supplied by the full Amateur orchestra under the leadership of Wray Taylor. Mrs. Gunn in person directed the dancing. The house was filled to overflowing. For once the "peanut" gallery was occupied by dress suits and the pretty evening costumes of ladies. President Dole, wife and party occupied one of the boxes, the Irwins another, Mrs. McGrew, Mrs. Dr. Cooper and party a third and a party of ladies the fourth.

The evening opened with a drill, conducted by Mrs. Gunn. This was very pretty and elicited rounds of applause. There was next a fancy dance by Edna Gunn and then a baby ballet. In the latter were ten little girls, of six years and less, each carrying a doll. The singing and exercises of the wee party were quite charming.

The skit dancing of Edna Krouse and Florence Lyons and the sailor's romps by Oliver Lansing were strong features. There was also a cotillon of three sets of little girls and a tamboourine dance by four young misses that were highly pleasing.

The minstrel was one of the most interesting features of the program. It was participated in by three sets of little folks clad in ancient court costume. The make-up of the dancers was simply in exquisite taste and the dancing was of the best. Applause was frequent and at times became almost boisterous.

Mrs. Gunn was heartily congratulated on every side upon the success of the entertainment.

WAS AN OLD OFFENDER.

A Scott was arraigned in Police Court this morning on the charge of selling liquor without license. An Attorney, not familiar with certain history, had the case and, with arms full of Hawaiian reports, entered the court room. "I move that the previous sentence on the same charge be now imposed," said the prosecuting officer to the court. The attorney for the defense came near fainting. Recovering his confusion the lawyer asked that sentence be not imposed until Monday, for the reason that he "wanted to think it over."

POLICE COURT.

In the Police court this morning A. Hanscom was fined $5 for assault and battery with a dangerous weapon. Ah Lau paid $50 for having opium in possession.

The second liquor case against A. Scott went over to the 12.

BASEBALL TODAY.

The Star and Kamehameha baseball teams will play on the grounds at Makiki this afternoon. With single exception the lines will be the same as on the last occasion. A good game is promised. It will be remembered that the last contest between these teams was close and exciting.
